

CALL FOR PAPERS

Ernst Herzfeld-Gesellschaft Graduate Meeting
Thursday, July 2, 2020, Rome Sapienza University

Memorial Statue of Ferdowsi, Villa Borghese, Rome

Dear Junior Researchers,

The Ernst Herzfeld-Society is very pleased to invite you to the Graduate Students Meeting, which will be held on Thursday July 2nd, 2020 at Sapienza University in Rome. The meeting will take place on the day before the 16th Colloquium of the Ernst Herzfeld-Society and offers the possibility to participate in both events. The Colloquium is scheduled on 3-4, July 2020. For further details, please see the call for papers on the Ernst Herzfeld-Society website here: <https://ernst-herzfeld-gesellschaft.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/01/EHG16-CfP.pdf>

The Graduate Student Meeting offers junior researchers (Bachelor, Master, and PhD) in the field of History of Islamic Art, Islamic Archaeology and Islamic Architecture the opportunity to present their ongoing research while providing a platform for open discussion and exchange. The theme of this year's colloquium is funerary practices. Students are welcome to submit presentations related but are not required to do so.

You are invited to submit an abstract with a title, your name, and your affiliation by March 15, 2020. You are also welcome to submit suggestions for activities or discussion topics that you feel would benefit the structure of the meeting. English is preferred but presentations are also welcome in German or Italian.

The conference fee of 50 euros (25 euros for students) is waived for members of the Society. If you would like to join the Society, you can register online at: <https://ernst-herzfeld-gesellschaft.com/en/beitrittsformular/>

I am very much looking forward to meeting you in Rome. For any questions, feel free to email me at sarah.cresap.johnson@gmail.com

With my best wishes,

Sarah Johnson
